Here is information about the ministries Bryon and Lorilee Lippincott shared with us. To give to any of these organizations you can write a check or put cash in a tithe envelope and turn it in any time. Please specify on the envelope which organization you would like the money to go to and we will be sure they get it – if it is not specified it will go to Sharing Dots.

New Hope for Cambodian Children is an HIV orphanage in Cambodia that cares for over 200 children at their village as well as helping over 1400 other children who can stay with family. More Info: newhopeforcambodianchildren.com

Mercy House Thailand is a local program run by a Thai couple who saw the need for an orphanage 19 years ago and answered by taking in these children. They currently have 23 children. Because they are local they don't have access to funds outside the country like other programs. Their biggest need is to cover school lunches which cost $1 per child per day. More info: mercyhousethailand.org.

Harbour is a program that works with refugees in East Asia to help with immediate needs as well as long-term needs. Short term needs include food, heat, and medical. Long term needs include community, education, and support as these refugees wait 3-5 years for approval to go to a country they can settle in permanently. More info: harboureastasia.org.